

BUSINESS COCKTAIL

CEO Network Business Cocktail

After a successful launch of this format earlier this year, AmCham organized its second CEO cocktail in September. Unlike other AmCham business cocktails, this event is open exclusively to CEOs and top management representatives of AmCham member companies. This creates an ideal networking environment for executives who value their time and appreciate the opportunity to share their experience with other leaders.

A special occasion requires special attractions. Peter Dudáš, Executive Chef from Crowne Plaza, where the cocktail took place, demonstrated an exhibition of live cooking, which included several special treats such as shark meat. In addition, an amazing jazz band lead by Boris Cellár and František Bálež provided great musical entertainment.

BUSINESS COCKTAIL

Welcome Back to Work

Just a day after the opening of the Fall business season in Košice, the traditional Welcome Back to Work cocktail also took place in Bratislava. Although the weather during the day looked anything but promising, it improved considerably towards the evening. This made the evening way better, as the venue at Grand Hotel River Park offers a beautiful outdoor space right next to the river bank.

The menu was prepared by the well-known chef Jaroslav Židek, excellent wine and tap beer were served as well. The first cocktail after the summer break attracted a great number of members. The pleasant outdoor atmosphere, the tempting scents of the various delicacies, and above all the interesting company kept people engaged in discussions long into the night.
